

Science Test

Chapters 4-6

1. What are the four stages of insect growth? Label and draw a picture using a butterfly as an example.

2. What are the three main body parts of an insect?

head
thorax
abdomen

3. Matching

k the study of the ocean h to break into tiny pieces and become part of a liquid b the tiny floating plants and animals of the sea e the matter that settles to the bottom of a liquid g the scientists who study the ocean f the main sense organ of the insect j the insect's breathing holes i the complete four stages of insect growth a to look like the surrounding area for protection d when one animal looks like another animal for protection

a. camouflage

b. plankton

c. tentacles

d. mimicry

e. sediment

f. antennae

g. oceanographers

h. dissolve

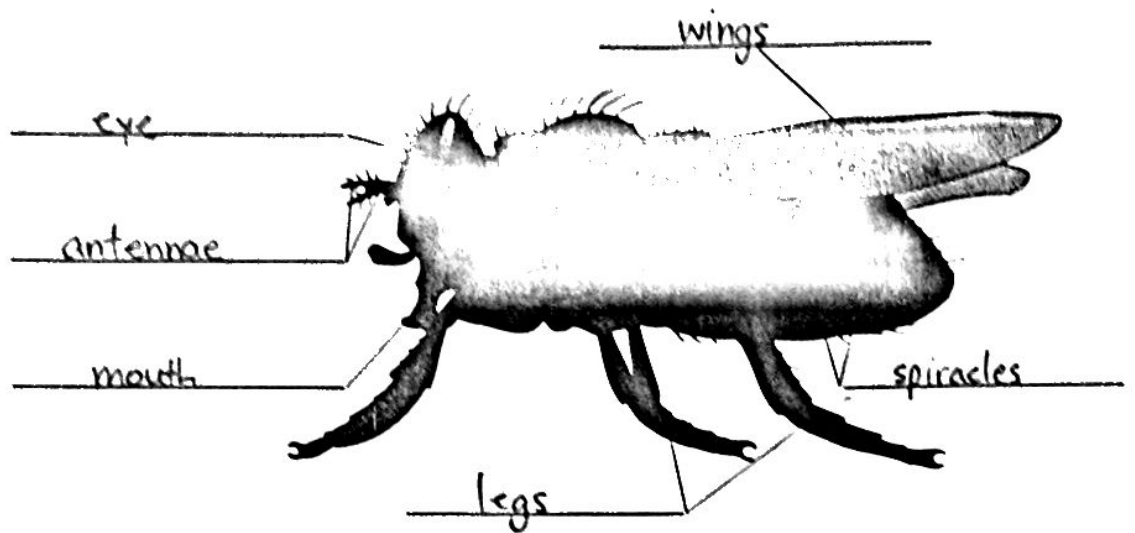

i. metamorphosis

j. spiracles

k. oceanography

1. Label the parts of this insect.

4. Label the insect

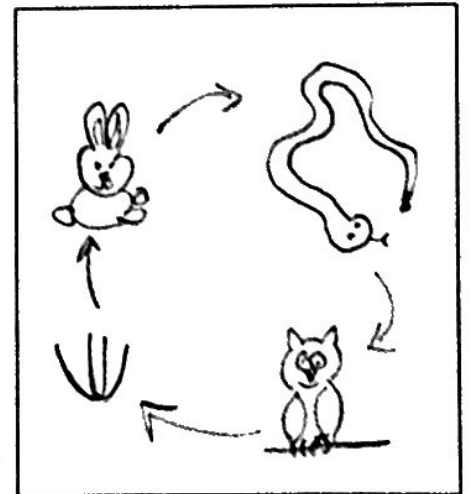

5. In four good sentences, give an example of a food chain found in the desert. Then draw a picture of your food chain in the box.

A rabbit eats a green plant.

A snake eats the rabbit

An owl eats the snake.

The owl dies and decays back into the ground

6. Be able to tell a vertebrate apart from an invertebrate.